

Dinah Lin MBA

STEPPING OUT & SPEAKING UP

Dinah Lin is entering her 'sixth stage' and, at a vibrant 79, she's Stepping Out & Speaking Up, to inspire others that "It's Never Too Late!" She's living proof, beginning her career at 36, getting her MBA from Columbia Business School at 40, breaking the 'glass ceiling' in corporate America then moving to Beijing to study Chinese and reconnect with her roots at 58. A year turned into a decade, as she witnessed China's massive transformation. Returning to the U.S. in 2010, Dinah struggled to overcome her fears to follow a long held dream, writing her book. The book turned into a 'memoir with a message' as well as a challenge to herself, "Daring to Dream Once Again - It's Never Too Late!"
